Welcome to St. Andrew's

We're glad you are here to worship with us today. If you are new, please fill out the information card located in the pew rack and drop it in the offering plate so we may contact you. Please join us for Refreshments and Fellowship in the Parish House after Mass.

Worship

Our Worship service can be found in this bulletin or The Book of Common Prayer, the red book in your pew rack. BCP numbers refer to pages in The Book of Common Prayer. Our hymns and service music are from The Hymnal 1982, the blue book in your pew rack.

Preparation for Worship

In the Anglican tradition, time spent in Church prior to the service should be used for reflection and prayer. This is an integral part of creating an atmosphere of reverence. Please respect the needs of others for this quiet preparation.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also, with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

A Reading from the prophet Jeremiah, the 33rd Chapter beginning with the 14th verse

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: "The LORD is our righteousness."

Reader: The Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 25:1-9

1 To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul; my God, I put my / trust in you;*
let me not be humiliated, nor let my enemies / triumph over me.

2 Let none who look to you be / put to shame;*
let the treacherous be disap/pointed in their schemes.

3 Show me your / ways, O LORD,*
and / teach me your paths.

4 Lead me in your truth and / teach me,*
for you are the God of my salvation; in you have I trusted / all the day long.

5 Remember, O LORD, your compassion and / love,*
for they are from / everlasting.

6 Remember not the sins of my youth and my trans/gressions;*
remember me according to your love and for the sake of your / goodness, O LORD.

7 Gracious and upright is the / LORD;*
therefore he teaches / sinners in his way.

8 He guides the humble in / doing right*
and teaches his way / to the lowly.

9 All the paths of the LORD are love and / faithfulness* to those who keep his covenant and his / testimonies

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Thessalonians, the 3rd Chapter beginning with the 9th verse

How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy that we feel before our God because of you? Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you face to face and restore whatever is lacking in your faith.

Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you. And may he so strengthen your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

People: Thanks be to God.

Stand as your are able for the proclamation of the Gospel

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke 21:25-36

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in a cloud' with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near." Then he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees; as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. "Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day catch you unexpectedly, like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man."

December 1, 2024 Advent 1 (C)
First Week of Advent: Saying “Yes” to the Journey

As Advent begins this week, we invite you to orient yourself to the coming of Jesus at Christmas through the practices of Journeying the Way of Love. This journey begins by saying “yes” to God’s call to birth new life into the world—a call that is both powerful and gentle, a call that will, if fully embraced, grow beyond our imaginations, spilling out of ourselves and into our family, friends, community, and the whole world. Over the course of this holy season, we invite you to respond to that call using these daily practices, and encourage you to offer them to your friends, family, and neighbors.

For more Advent resources related to the Way of Love, visit episcopalchurch.org/wayoflove. There, you’ll find links to the full Advent curriculum Journeying the Way of Love, as well as Living the Way of Love in Community, a nine-session curriculum for use anytime.

Sunday, December 1

WORSHIP

Read Luke 21:25-36. How do the symbols of the Advent season help you understand the story of Jesus? Where do you see them in your worship today?

Monday, December 2

PRAY

Pray along with the Collect for Advent 1, found on page 211 of The Book of Common Prayer. Set a timer for three minutes to sit in silence and hear what God might be saying back to you.

Tuesday, December 3

TURN

Read Isaiah 58. How does this reading challenge you to think about feasts and festivals differently? How might this lesson change the way you celebrate or recognize this holy season?

Wednesday, December 4

BLESS

Call or write a letter to a family member with whom you would like to have a closer relationship. Make plans in the new year to chat on the phone or meet over Zoom or in person. Let them know how much you love them and look forward to knowing them better.

Thursday, December 5

REST

Put your phone on airplane mode and leave it in a dresser drawer for an hour or two. Whatever happens in that time, you can handle later. Give this time to yourself and Jesus, to rest and recharge for the week ahead.

Friday, December 6

GO

Go out into your neighborhood today. Where is God at work? Ask God to show you how you can celebrate that good work and name God’s presence in your community.

Saturday, December 7

LEARN

Read Luke 1:59-80. When Zechariah’s speech returns, he praises God. If you lost the power to speak for nine months like Zechariah did, what would be your first word of praise? Share this with your family, friends, and on social media.
