Welcome to St. Andrew's

We're glad you are here to worship with us today. If you are new, please fill out the information card located in the pew rack and drop it in the offering plate so we may contact you. Please join us for Refreshments and Fellowship in the Parish House after Mass.

Worship

Our Worship service can be found in this bulletin or The Book of Common Prayer, the red book in your pew rack. BCP numbers refer to pages in The Book of Common Prayer. Our hymns and service music are from The Hymnal 1982, the blue book in your pew rack.

Preparation for Worship

In the Anglican tradition, time spent in Church prior to the service should be used for reflection and prayer. This is an integral part of creating an atmosphere of reverence. Please respect the needs of others for this quiet preparation.

Opening Acclamation

BCP p. 323

The people standing, the Celebrant says

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgiveth all our sins.

People His mercy endureth for ever.

The Celebrant says

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith:

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

The Celebrant then says

Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God.

Silence may be kept.

Minister and People

Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep,
we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts,
we have offended against thy holy laws,
we have left undone those things which we ought to have done,
and we have done those things which we ought not to have done.

But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us,
spare thou those who confess their faults,
restore thou those who are penitent,
according to thy promises declared unto mankind
in Christ Jesus our Lord;
and grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake,
that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life,
to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

The Almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

Hymnal S 86

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Almighty God, who seest that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the Readings and Psalm

A Reading from the book of Exodus, the 3rd chapter beginning with the 1st verse

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up."

When the LORD saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.” Then he said, “Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.” He said further, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the LORD said, “I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.” But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?” He said, “I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain.”

But Moses said to God, “If I come to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ what shall I say to them?” God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” He said further, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’” God also said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘The LORD, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you’:

This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations.”

PSALM 63:1-8

1. O God, you are my God; eagerly I / seek you;*
my soul thirsts for you, my flesh faints for you, as in a barren and dry land where there is / no water.
2. Therefore I have gazed upon you in your / holy place,*
that I might behold your power and / your glory.
3. For your loving-kindness is better than / life itself;*
my lips / shall give you praise.
4. So will I bless you as long as I / live* and lift up my hands / in your Name.
5. My soul is content, as with marrow and / fatness,*
and my mouth praises you / with joyful lips,
6. When I remember you up/on my bed,*
and meditate on you in the / night watches.
7. For you have been my / helper,*
and under the shadow of your wings / I will rejoice.
8. My soul / clings to you;*
your right / hand holds me fast.

A Reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, the 10th chapter beginning with the 1st verse

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, and they were struck down in the wilderness.

Now these things occurred as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not become idolaters as some of them did; as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play." We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents. And do not complain as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer.

These things happened to them to serve as an example, and they were written down to instruct us, on whom the ends of the ages have come. So if you think you are standing, watch out that you do not fall. No testing has overtaken you that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing he will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it.

Sequence Hymn O God, unseen yet ever near

Hymnal 332

Stand as you are able for the proclamation of the Gospel

Then, all standing, the Celebrant reads the Gospel, first saying

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke 13:1-9

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

At that very time there were some present who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. He asked them, “Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them—do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did.”

Then he told this parable: “A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, ‘See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?’ He replied, ‘Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.’”

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Sermon

The Very Rev'd Andrew Hanyzewski

Stand as you are able

Nicene Creed

BCP p. 326

The Prayers of the People

BCP p. 328

The Celebrant says

Let us pray for the whole state of Christ's Church and the world.

Almighty and everliving God, who in thy holy Word hast taught us to make prayers, and supplications, and to give thanks for all men: Receive these our prayers which we offer unto thy divine Majesty, beseeching thee to inspire continually the Universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord; and grant that all those who do confess thy holy Name may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love.

Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all bishops and other ministers especially Stephen, the Arch-bishop of York, temporarily assuming the duties of the Archbishop of Canterbury, Sean our presiding Bishop, Sally our Bishop, and Andrew our Rector; that they may, both by their life and doctrine, set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments.

And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace, and especially to this congregation here present; that, with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear and receive thy holy Word, truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life.

We beseech thee also so to rule the hearts of those who bear the authority of government in this and every land especially Donald our president and Phil our governor, that they may be led to wise decisions and right actions for the welfare and peace of the world.

Open, O Lord, the eyes of all people to behold thy gracious hand in all thy works, that, rejoicing in thy whole creation, they may honor thee with their substance, and be faithful stewards of thy bounty.

And we most humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succor the Ferguson family, Kelsi, Judie, Maria, Johnny, Rich C., Monroe D., Jordan C., Suzie, Meghan T., Nick V., Bradely, David D., Chris B., Ivy, Kathy, Carla, Federal Officers, all those in Law Enforcement and the Military, First Responders, those who suffer from addiction, those who suffer from suicidal tendencies, for all of those affected by the wars around the world, and for all those on our extended prayer list and all those who in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.

And we also bless thy holy Name for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear especially those who die from gun violence in our country daily, and those who have died in the wars around the world, beseeching thee to grant them continual growth in thy love and service; and to grant us grace so to follow the good examples of The Ever Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Andrew and of all thy saints, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly kingdom.

Grant these our prayers, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate.
Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And with thy spirit.

The people may greet each other with a gesture or a bow not leaving their pews.

DISTRIBUTION

BCP p. 338

All baptized Christians who are regular communicants in their own churches are welcome to receive the Eucharist. You may receive kneeling or standing. The Sacrament is celebrated using wheat bread and fermented wine; if you cannot receive either for any reason, the Church has taught that receiving the Sacrament in one kind is to receive fully. If you prefer not to receive, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing from the priest or remain in your seat.

The ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people.

The Bread and the Cup are given to the communicants with these words

The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life.

The Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life.

For those participating via Zoom or Live Streaming, since you are not able to receive Holy Communion, make an act of spiritual communion during the Communion of the Priest:

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though you have already come, I embrace you and unite myself entirely to you; never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER: Iglesia Anglicana de la Region Central de America

DIOCESAN CYCLE OF PRAYER: Members and Ministry of Church Altar Guilds

AL-ANON– If you or someone you know needs a support group to help deal with a friend, neighbor or loved one who has an addiction problem, join our meetings every Monday from 12pm – 1pm in the Parish Hall.

MARCH BIRTHDAYS – Sharon Yerkes (1), Deborah Serad (8), Barbara Eickhoff (14), David Fisher (15), Jonathan Stark (15), Patricia Thomasey (19), John Sackett (22), Kiley Miller (22), and Nathan Troyanovoch (30).

TO LIVE AGAIN - TLA is a mutual support group for widowed men and women and is not a structured grief counseling program. TLA is open to all widowed men and women regardless of age, race, religion or place of residence.

The purpose of TLA “Reach Out” Meetings is to bring widowed people together to help each other adjust to their life circumstances and to learn that they are not alone. Meetings provide an opportunity for widowed people to express their feelings to others who know what it’s like to lose a spouse. We have been encountering the same practical, emotional and social challenges that you are.

The meetings are facilitated by TLA members who have been widowed for a number of years and who usually begin meetings with a short inspirational or instructional reading to provide a subject for stimulated discussion. Because everyone grieves differently, you may want to begin attending meetings two days or ten years after your spouse’s passing. Come when you're ready.

Meetings are held every Tuesday at 1pm. No cost, no commitment – Come when you can... Come together to help each other. Meetings will be held at St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church, 121 High St. Mount Holly, NJ. For additional information please call the Church office at 609-267-0225, or the following members: Mary Lou Murray at 609-267-6130 or Joe Kaszupski at 856-630-1734

Hugh Campbell Collection: January 9th-March 29th

Hugh H. Campbell was an artist, published author, and philosopher who lived an extremely minimalistic life right here in Mt. Holly. Much of his collection has been stored away, deep within Burlington County's archives. This exhibit will grant you a unique opportunity to view rare and never seen before art. The exhibit will feature paintings, sketches, pastel, and chalk drawings, as well as early drawings of when Hugh began to learn and practice his art.

The flyer features a blue background with a white book icon on the left containing the text "Your artwork will be published here in 2025!". To the right is a colorful sunburst graphic. Below the book is a cluster of various colored pencils and a purple camera. The text on the flyer reads: "Main Street Mount Holly ART BOOK CONTEST", "We are creating a book to be published in the Summer of 2025 about our town! We need your help in creating a one page artwork that depicts ONE of your favorite places to:", "★ LIVE, WORK, PLAY, DINE, SIP, OR EXPLORE in Mount Holly, NJ! Only one submission per person.", "All entries must be 8.5" x 11" (Landscape)", "Any medium is accepted; Must be original artwork.", "Opens: March 4, 2025- Ends: April 4, 2025", "Submit your entry to any Mount Holly Business Owner or your School's Art Teacher by 4/4/2025 for selection by the Main Street Mount Holly Volunteer Judges and inclusion in the book. Notifications will be sent by mail to all contest winners by July 30, 2025.", "Publication Waiver located on the back of this flyer must be submitted with original artwork.", At the bottom, it lists "SPONSORS:" with logos for the Town of Mount Holly, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Main Street Mount Holly Association. Contact information for Terri Sackett is provided at the bottom right.

Calling all artists, enter one piece of artwork about your favorite place in our town that may be selected FOR the MAIN STREET MOUNT HOLLY ART BOOK 2025!

Opens: March 4th
Ends: April 4th

Must complete the Artwork Release Form and submit your work to any business in town!

50th Anniversary Honoring Patrolmen Aleshire-Wurst-Holmes

March 28th 9 AM-10 AM

March 28th marks the 50th anniversary of the 1975 Good Friday massacre where a lone gunman fired shots from his Garden Street home. Mt. Holly Police Patrolman Donald Aleshire and Hainesport Police Patrolman William Wurst were killed at the scene. Mt. Holly Patrolman John Holmes was paralyzed and died from complications from his injuries in 1992. Every year on March 28th, the Mt. Holly Police Department honors the police officers where there is a memorial stone in front of the Municipal Building on Washington Street. Although 50 years have passed, the three fallen officers will not be forgotten.
