Welcome to St. Andrew's

We're glad you are here to worship with us today. If you are new, please fill out the information card located in the pew rack and drop it in the offering plate so we may contact you.

Worship

Our Worship service can be found in this bulletin or The Book of Common Prayer, the red book in your pew rack. BCP numbers refer to pages in The Book of Common Prayer. Our hymns and service music are from The Hymnal 1982, the blue book in your pew rack.

Preparation for Worship

In the Anglican tradition, time spent in Church prior to the service should be used for reflection and prayer. This is an integral part of creating an atmosphere of reverence. Please respect the needs of others for this quiet preparation.

Processional Jesus Christ is risen today

Hymnal 207

Descant

The musical score is written for four voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and includes a descant. The descant is a melodic line that begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#), indicating the key of D major. It consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures containing beamed sixteenth notes. The descant is repeated twice, once at the beginning of the first system and once at the beginning of the second system. The vocal parts are written in four-part harmony, with the Soprano part in the upper voice and the Bass part in the lower voice. The lyrics are arranged in four systems, each corresponding to a line of the hymn. The first system contains the first four lines of the hymn, and the second system contains the next four lines. The descant is placed at the beginning of each system, providing a melodic introduction to the lyrics. The lyrics are: 1 Je - sus Christ is risen to - day, Al - le - lu - ia! 2 Hymns of praise then let us sing, Al - le - lu - ia! 3 But the pains which he en-dured, Al - le - lu - ia! 4 Sing we to our God a - bove Al - le - lu - ia! our tri - um - phant ho - ly day, Al - le - lu - ia! un - to Christ, our heaven - ly King, Al - le - lu - ia! our sal - va - tion have pro - cured; Al - le - lu - ia! praise e - ter - nal as his love; Al - le - lu - ia!

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the on day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the Readings and Psalm

THE FIRST READING: Acts 10:34-43

The people sit.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles, the 10th chapter beginning with the 34th verse:

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

A Reading from 1st Corinthians, the 15th chapter beginning with the 19th verse:

If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke 24:1-12

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women who had come with Jesus from Galilee came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

Celebrant: Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ? People: I do.

Celebrant: Do you believe in God the Father?

People: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant: Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People: I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant: Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People: I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Celebrant: Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you seek to serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People: I will, with God's help.

The congregation is sprinkled with Holy Water from the font that was blessed last evening at the Great Vigil.

Celebrant: May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

People: Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE FORM VI

BCP p. 392

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

For all people in their daily life and work;

For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

For this community, the nation, and the world;

For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of your creation;
For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;
For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;
For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For Stephen, the Arch-bishop of York, temporarily assuming the duties of the Archbishop of Canterbury, Sean our presiding Bishop, Sally our Bishop, and Andrew our Rector;
For all who serve God in his Church.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation especially James M., Janice F., Marion, Angela, Pamela, Ann, Kelsi, Judie, Maria, Johnny, Rich C., Monroe D., Jordan C., Suzie, Meghan T., Nick V., Bradely, David D., Chris B., Ivy, Kathy, Carla, Federal Officers, all those in Law Enforcement and the Military, First Responders, those who suffer from addiction, those who suffer from suicidal tendencies.

Silence

Hear us, Lord;
For your mercy is great.

We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.

Silence

We will exalt you, O God our King;
And praise your Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died, especially, those who die from gun violence in our country daily, all of those who have died in the wars around the world, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;
Who put their trust in you.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence may be kept.

Leader and People

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;
in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant concludes with a Collect

Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The people may greet each other with a gesture or a bow not leaving their pews.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant:

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.
AMEN.

DISTRIBUTION

BCP p. 338

All baptized Christians who are regular communicants in their own churches are welcome to receive the Eucharist. You may receive kneeling or standing. The Sacrament is celebrated using wheat bread and fermented wine; if you cannot receive either for any reason, the Church has taught that receiving the Sacrament in one kind is to receive fully. If you prefer not to receive, you are welcome to come forward to receive a blessing from the priest or remain in your seat.

The ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people.

The Bread and the Cup are given to the communicants with these words

The Body (Blood) of our Lord Jesus Christ keep you in everlasting life. Amen.

For those participating via Zoom or Live Streaming, since you are not able to receive Holy Communion, make an act of spiritual communion during the Communion of the Priest:

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though you have already come, I embrace you and unite myself entirely to you; never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

AL-ANON– If you or someone you know needs a support group to help deal with a friend, neighbor or loved one who has an addiction problem, join our meetings every Monday from 12pm – 1pm in the Parish Hall.

APRIL BIRTHDAYS – Richard Murphy (22), Robert McCullough (27), Lynn Warren (27), Betsey Marinella (28) and Alison Reinhard (30).

TO LIVE AGAIN - TLA is a mutual support group for widowed men and women and is not a structured grief counseling program. TLA is open to all widowed men and women regardless of age, race, religion or place of residence.

The purpose of TLA “Reach Out” Meetings is to bring widowed people together to help each other adjust to their life circumstances and to learn that they are not alone. Meetings provide an opportunity for widowed people to express their feelings to others who know what it’s like to lose a spouse. We have been encountering the same practical, emotional and social challenges that you are.

The meetings are facilitated by TLA members who have been widowed for a number of years and who usually begin meetings with a short inspirational or instructional reading to provide a subject for stimulated discussion. Because everyone grieves differently, you may want to begin attending meetings two days or ten years after your spouse’s passing. Come when you're ready.

Meetings are held every Tuesday at 1pm. No cost, no commitment – Come when you can... Come together to help each other. Meetings will be held at St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church, 121 High St. Mount Holly, NJ. For additional information please call the Church office at 609-267-0225, or the following members: Mary Lou Murray at 609-267-6130 or Joe Kaszupski at 856-630-1734

Sunday Morning Bible Study Calling all St. Andrew's community!

Please join us for a Sunday morning Bible Study from 9:00am –9:45am in the ParishHouse

We will use the Scripture that will be used at Mass along with commentary and thought provoking questions for us to ponder and discuss. What a great way to start your day and prepare for Mass. See you there!

Preserving Memory
A Hands-On Cemetery Headstone
Cleaning and Repair Workshop

Friday, April 25 and Saturday, April 26, 2025 9:00am to 4:00pm (both days) Meet at St. Andrew's Graveyard 128
Pine St., Mount Holly, NJ

FREE TO ATTEND

Program delivered by Jonathan Appell, Owner of Adia Preservation. Attendees learn expert techniques to clean and repair cemetery headstones so that they can help preserve your community.

Appropriate for ages 13 and up, those under 15 must be accompanied by parent or guardian. Attendance on both days not required, but encouraged.

Bring your own lunch, drinking water, soft natural or nylon brushes, bucket, waterproof garden gloves, spray bottle, kneeler (if desired), and lawn chair.

Check to see if event is postponed due to weather on St. Andrew's Facebook page at facebook.com/standrewsmounthollynj.

Funding has been made possible in part by the New Jersey Historical Commission / Department of State, and the Burlington County Board of County Commissioners, Department of Resource Conservation, Division of Parks.

Volunteers are needed for this hands-on guided workshop to help restore, properly clean our historic grave stones in the St. Andrew's Graveyard, April 25 & 26th!

9 AM – 4 PM

CODE BLUE CARE BAGS THANKS

Much gratitude is given to all parishioners who donated toiletries that were placed in Care Bags for distribution to individuals during the NJ code Blue season-November 1, 2024, through April 1, 2025. Our new program was also supported by the $1000 Ellis Foundation Grant and Pastor Darlene of Beacon of Hope supplementing supplies as needed this winter. Members of the Venue donated toiletries & the Linus Project donated handmade baby blankets, gloves, and hats with scarves to our mission. Many St. Andrew's parishioners took turns packing the drawstring bags ready for distribution bi-weekly as well. Many hands make light work! As Burlington County housed the guests in area motels (Red Roof Inn, Red Carpet Inn & The Travel Lodge), Chairs of this Outreach Committee, Terri & Gary Ireland/Terri & John Sackett, delivered 1,660 bags to individuals staying in the motel rooms. Each Care Bags contained: A comb, travel size shampoo bottle, body wash, 1 large wipe, a shaving kit, 1 toothpaste/toothbrush combo, disposable underwear, and 3 meals that were non-refrigerated, microwaveable.

Our outreach mission didn't end on April 1st. Our leftover supplies were given to 5 groups that continue supporting others throughout the remainder of this year:

- The First Presbyterian Church-Mt. Holly was given 60 pre-filled Care Bags for distribution at their weekly lunch program-Mondays/Fridays lunch.
- Providence House Shelter Program in Westampton & The Pinelands Family Success Center in Browns Mills were given the Linus Bag blanket donations & extra drawstring bags for new families.
- Oaks Integrated Care Food Pantry in Westampton was given packages of disposable underwear who help adults and families of mentally & physically challenged individuals.
- Dando Una Mano Non-Profit was given the toiletries for the migrant farm workers to help them stay healthy and well as the Garden States blooms throughout the spring and summer.

An estimated sum of $26,560 was donated during this outreach program helping our neighbors that are less fortunate in our communities. Thank you for showing love to those who need it most like Christ has taught us to continue to do.

Daffodils bloomed all over Mount Holly thanks to the Design Committee of Main Street Mount Holly and Burlington County grant that were planted in the fall and are now in full focus this Spring. Volunteers planted many bulbs at St. Andrew's Church and Graveyard under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Dunker. Thank you!
